The Spirit of R. H. S.

1

From thronging mobs to reverent prayer
I am the spirit found everywhere.

9

In crowded lockers and quiet nooks
In studious moments over books.

The secrets of science I help unfold
Foundations of fellowship to mold.

My moods though varied reflect the way
That R.H.S. kids spend the day.

5

In all activities I lend my zest
To make this year the very best.

MARDI GRAS

The time and effort put into the Mardi Gras was well worth it when we saw the pretty baaths that were created. One such baath was the "Cane-Walk" by Jane's Jokers, who won the coveted Y-Teen Dall for the best all-around baath.

Although they weren't aware of it here, Brown's Bunnies were soon to win the prize for the best decorated baath with the least expense. When it was finished, their baath was "In the Middle of an Island." Keenie's Kut-Ups put their heads together and came up with a bang-up idea. Their baath, "Garden of Eden", won the prize for being the most original.

Another group is selling cider!" Where's a hammer?" "I'll never get back in time!" Hectic? Yes, but Elaine Smith and Kate McKay did a swell job getting it all organized and it was a fabulous Mardi Gras.

HI-Y SNOWBALL IS TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

Soft music by Les Shepherd and a winter wonderland of snowy decorations created a beautiful atmosphere for one of the biggest social events of the year.

Beauty in five dimensions! Jane Weston was a beautiful Snow Queen, and her lovely attendants, Pot Peyton, Judy Ake, Susy Keenon, and Mary Kinyon, added the finishing touches of grace and charm to an outstanding event.

WORD TRAVELERS - Unni Bech, our foreign exchange student from Norway, was a bright light in the R.H.S. atmosphere this year. She was an outstanding person in every way and a wonderful ambassador of good will for her country. We hope she enjoyed visiting us as much as we enjoyed having her. Since we brought an exchange student here this year, we have the privilege of sending one of our own students abroad. Bunni Brown was the lucky junior who was chosen to represent Richmond and the United States in a foreign land this summer. # PIERIAN STAFF WORKED DILIGENTLY ON ANNUAL

This one - or that one? A lot of pictures and copy to puzzle over, but the Pierian staff finally comes up with what they hope will be a yearbook that the students like. Although there is a lot of time, effort, and hard work done by the staff, they do have some good laughs and "rare" experiences.
